

Exyte Hargreaves are international engineering and technology leaders in the design, manufacture, installation and commissioning of critical – high integrity ventilation systems and components. Exyte Hargreaves Top Management are committed to delivering this in the most sustainable manner, taking into consideration relevant external and internal issues along with the related requirements of relevant interested parties.

As a business we are committed to minimising any adverse impacts on the environment across the life cycle of our activities, products and services. We aim to do this through the implementation of our Integrated Management System (IMS) which includes the requirements of BS EN ISO 14001 which establishes a framework of Objectives and Targets to manage and continually improve our environmental performance.

We are committed to:

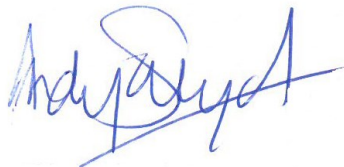

- Identifying and complying with all applicable compliance obligations.
- Optimising the use of local labour and suppliers.
- Monitoring and continually improving environmental performance.
- Implementing measures to optimise sustainable resource use.
- Managing and reducing our generation of waste and consumption of energy.
- Preventing pollution by appropriate management of our manufacturing and installation activities.
- Engaging our employees in environmental matters through training, communication and continuous evaluation of processes and procedures
- Being a good neighbour.
- Meeting the requirements of BS EN ISO 14001: 2015.

The Business Improvement Manager is required to establish a framework to annually review the environmental objectives, benchmarks and targets, maintain the integrated management system and report to the Managing Director and senior management on the implementation of its requirements and effectiveness.

We recognise that a genuine commitment to understanding the present and future expectations of our customers and the public in respect of the environmental management of the activities, products and services we provide is essential to the achievement of this policy and the future prosperity of our business.

Exyte Hargreaves Senior Management are committed to the implementation of this policy, which is made publicly available to all interested parties through our website.
